

RULE BOOK

CODESPHERE

RULES

The competition is designed as an individual challenge lasting for 1 hour and 30 minutes in an online format. The event is scheduled for March 8th, from 9:00 PM to 10:30 PM (Contest link will be shared with registered users via email). Participants are advised to be present 15 minutes prior to the event.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Participants must be registered for the contest and possess a basic understanding of programming concepts.
- Strict adherence to ethical standards is mandatory. Any form of cheating or plagiarism will be considered a violation of the contest rules, leading to immediate disqualification.
- Participants are expected to uphold the highest standards of honesty and integrity.
- Communication between participants during the contest is strictly prohibited.
- Contestants may code in any of the following languages: C/C++, Python, Java, JavaScript.
- Top-ranked participants will be awarded exciting prizes and certificates.
- Scoring will be based on the correctness and submission time of the problem. Tiebreakers will be resolved by evaluating the efficiency of the code.
- In the event of any issues, participants may submit a formal request to the organizing committee within 24 hours of the contest's conclusion. The organizing committee will review the case and provide a final decision.
- Participants are expected to treat fellow competitors, organizers, and staff with respect.